2. How is Deborah's judgeship similar to the judgeships of Othniel, Ehud, and Shamgar?
 - a. How is it different?

3. How does Deborah's career modify both "strong conservative" and "strong liberal" views of women's leadership?

4. Read Judges 4:6-16 and compare with Hebrews 11:32-34. Barak is praised for the faith he exercised in this campaign.
 - a. In what ways does he show faith?

 - b. In what ways does he point the way to the ultimate Savior and Judge?

5. Read Judges 4:17-22 and 5:24-31. How does 5:29-30 shed light on Jael's motives?

TAKING IT HOME

Reflect: In Judges we continually see God reciting Israel's perilous circumstances through unusual and unexpected means. Consider the places areas of your that may cause fear or anxiety, consider how God may be addressing these issues in unexpected ways.

Pray: For the faith to see how God is moving in your life, despite the way things may appear at the moment.
